Nov 26, 1949

Jan 26, 1950

(Adopted = Built, Enforced = Boss)

The Preamble is the Key to the Document

Timeline Note: Remained unchanged until 1976, when three new words were added.

Contains the basic ideals, values, and principles.

Serves as a Guiding Light for the entire document.

Crucial Detail: It is not enforceable by a court of law.

MEMORY SPARK: SSI -> Socialist, Secular, Integrity
(The 3 words added in '76. Think: In 1976, they added Super Special Ingredients).

The Five Load-Bearing Pillars of the State

INDIA

Sovereign

Completely independent; no foreign control.

Socialist

Strives for social and economic equality.

Secular

No official state religion; equal respect for all.

Democratic

Government elected directly by the people every 5 years.

Republic

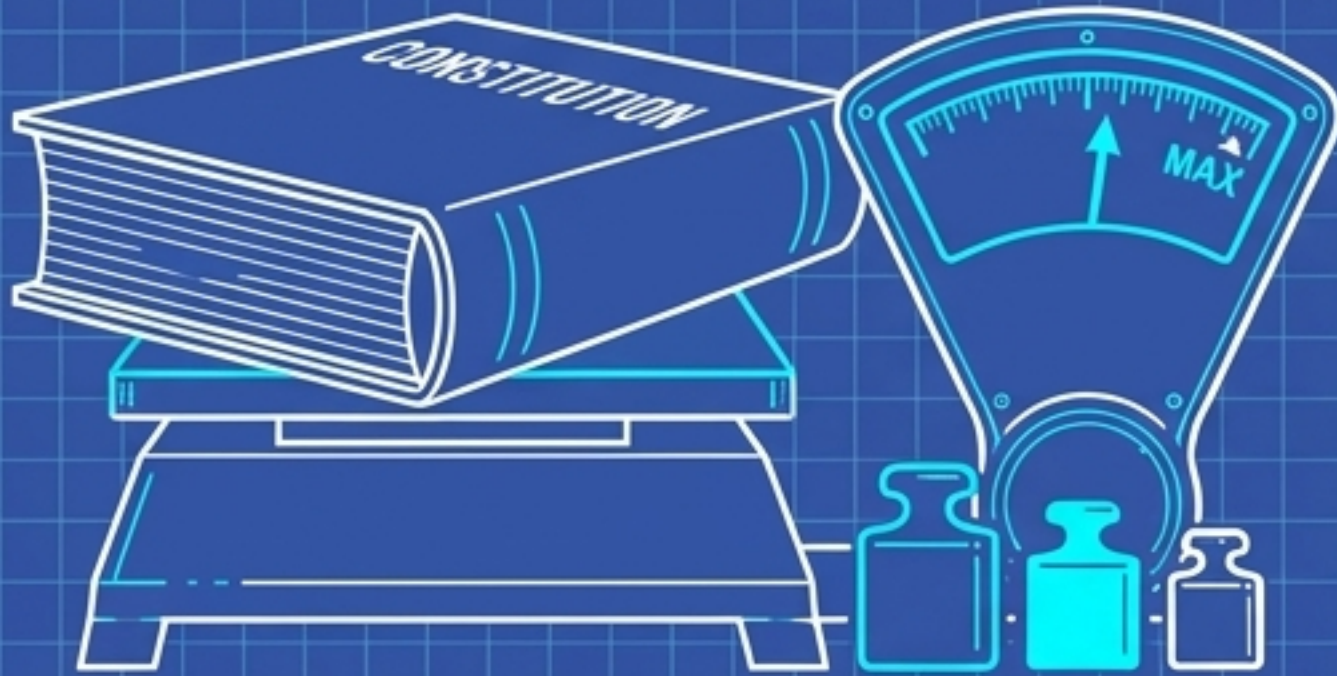

The Head of State (President) is an elected person, not a monarch.

MEMORY SPARK: Super Smart Students Do Revise (Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, Democratic, Republic).

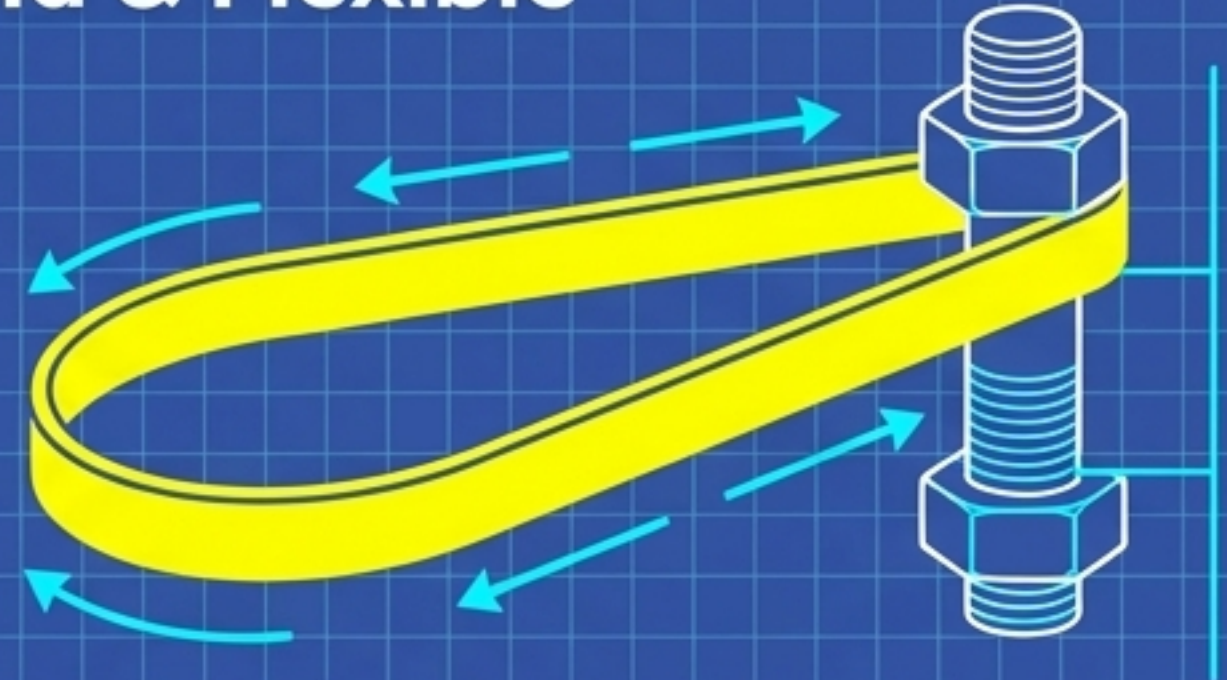

Feature Zone 1: The Document's Architecture

The Longest

- ❏ A written document borrowing the best from UK, USA, Ireland, and Canada.
- ❏ Stats: 395 Articles, 22 Parts, 12 Schedules.

Rigid & Flexible

- ❏ Governed by Article 368.
- ❏ Flexible: Some laws need only a simple majority.
- ❏ Rigid: Other laws require a strict 2/3 majority in both Houses.

MEMORY SPARK: Dial 3-9-5 for the longest rules, call 3-6-8 for an amendment.

Feature Zone 2: The Power and Protection of the People

Universal Adult Franchise

- Right to vote for every citizen 18+ years of age.
- Uses a Joint Electorate (replacing pre-independence separate electorates).
- Zero discrimination based on caste, creed, sex, or religion.

Fundamental Rights

- Guarantees 6 Fundamental Rights (Equality, Freedom, against Exploitation, Religion, Cultural/Educational, Constitutional Remedies).
- Crucial difference from Preamble: These are enforceable and protected by the judiciary.

MEMORY SPARK: At 18 you Vote, with 6 Rights in your coat.

Feature Zone 3: A Union of States

The Constitution avoids the word 'Federal', deliberately calling India a 'Union of States'.

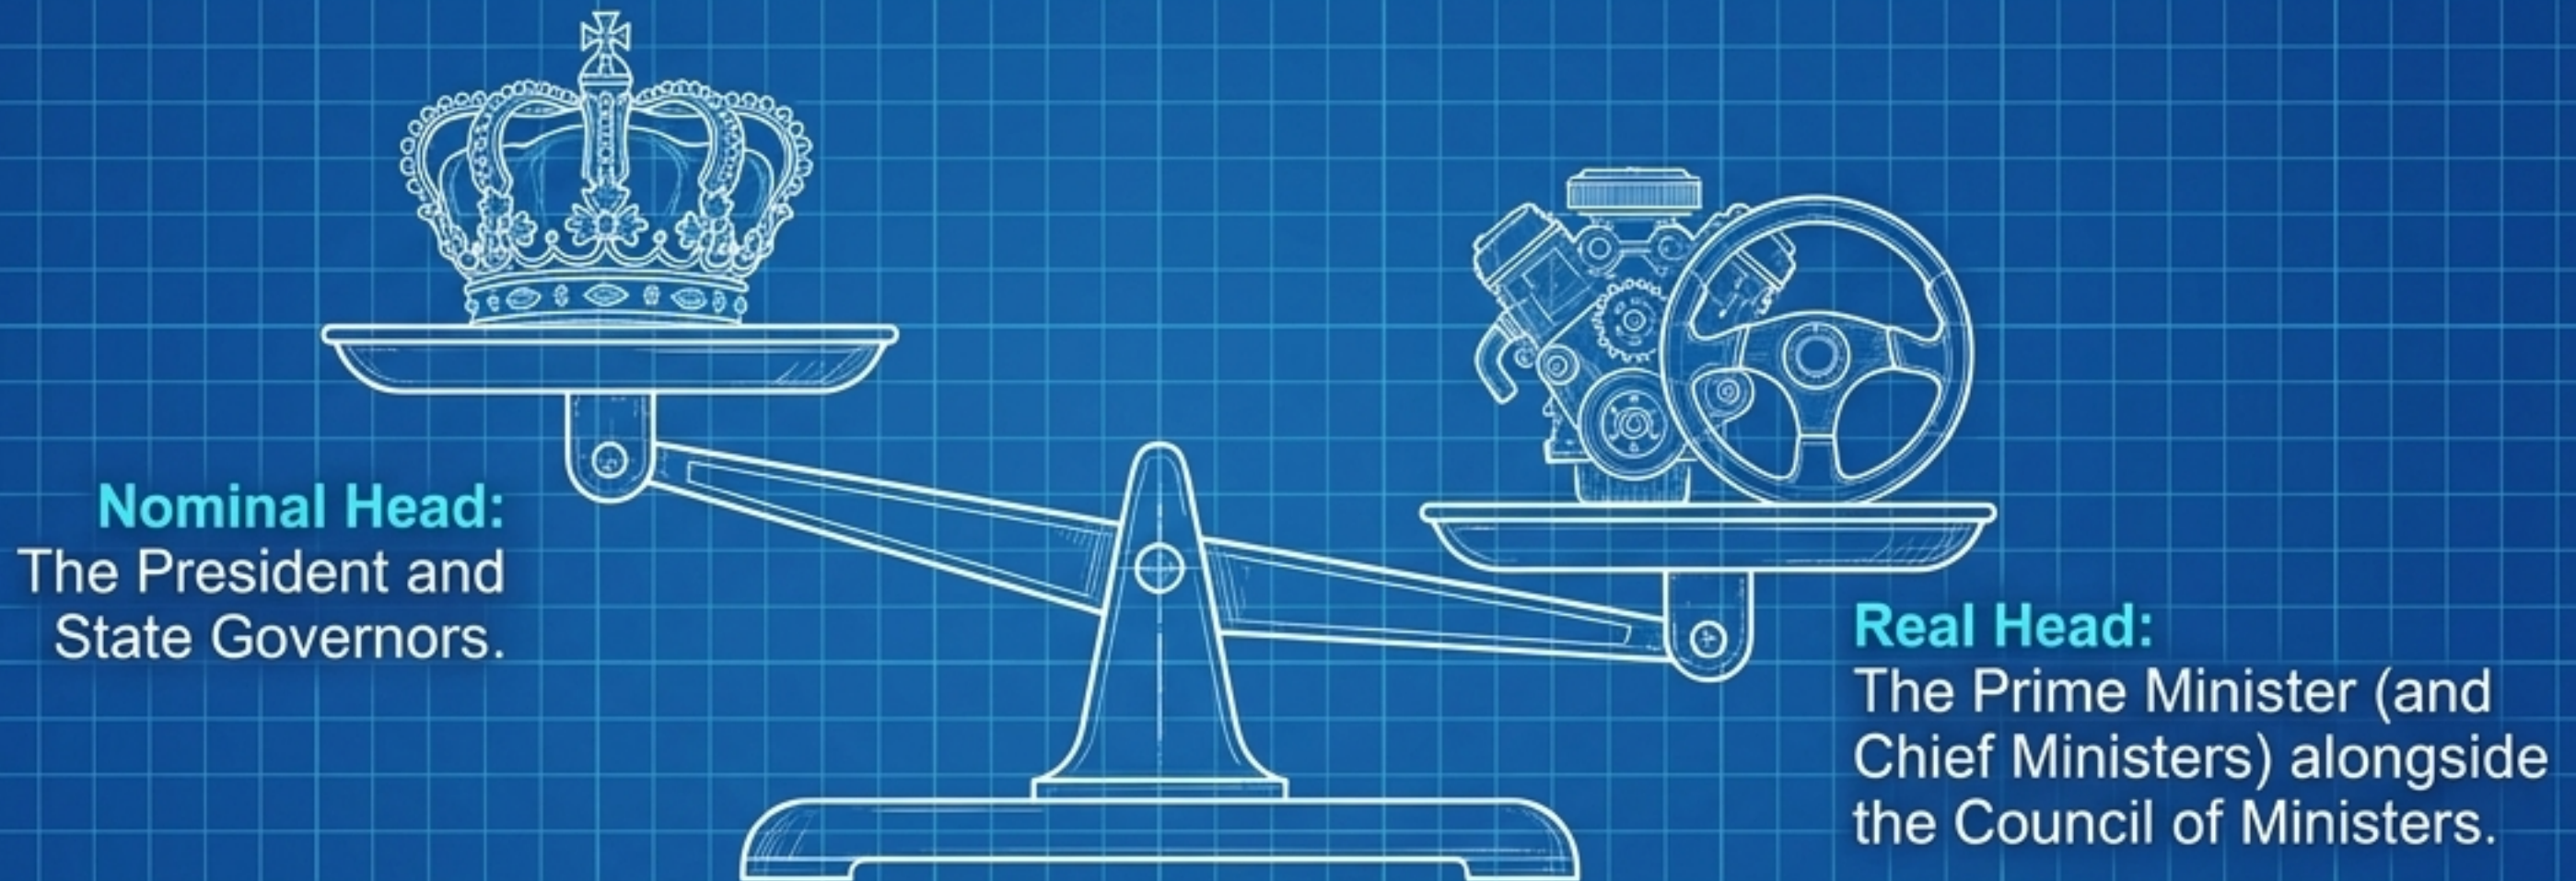

The Federal Feature: Clear division of powers; two separate sets of government (Centre and State) with defined functioning areas.

The Union Advantage: Unlike pure federations, the Centre in India clearly retains advantages and superior power over the states.

MEMORY SPARK: Federal = Friends (Centre + State), but the Centre is the Best Friend.

Feature Zone 4: The Parliamentary Balance

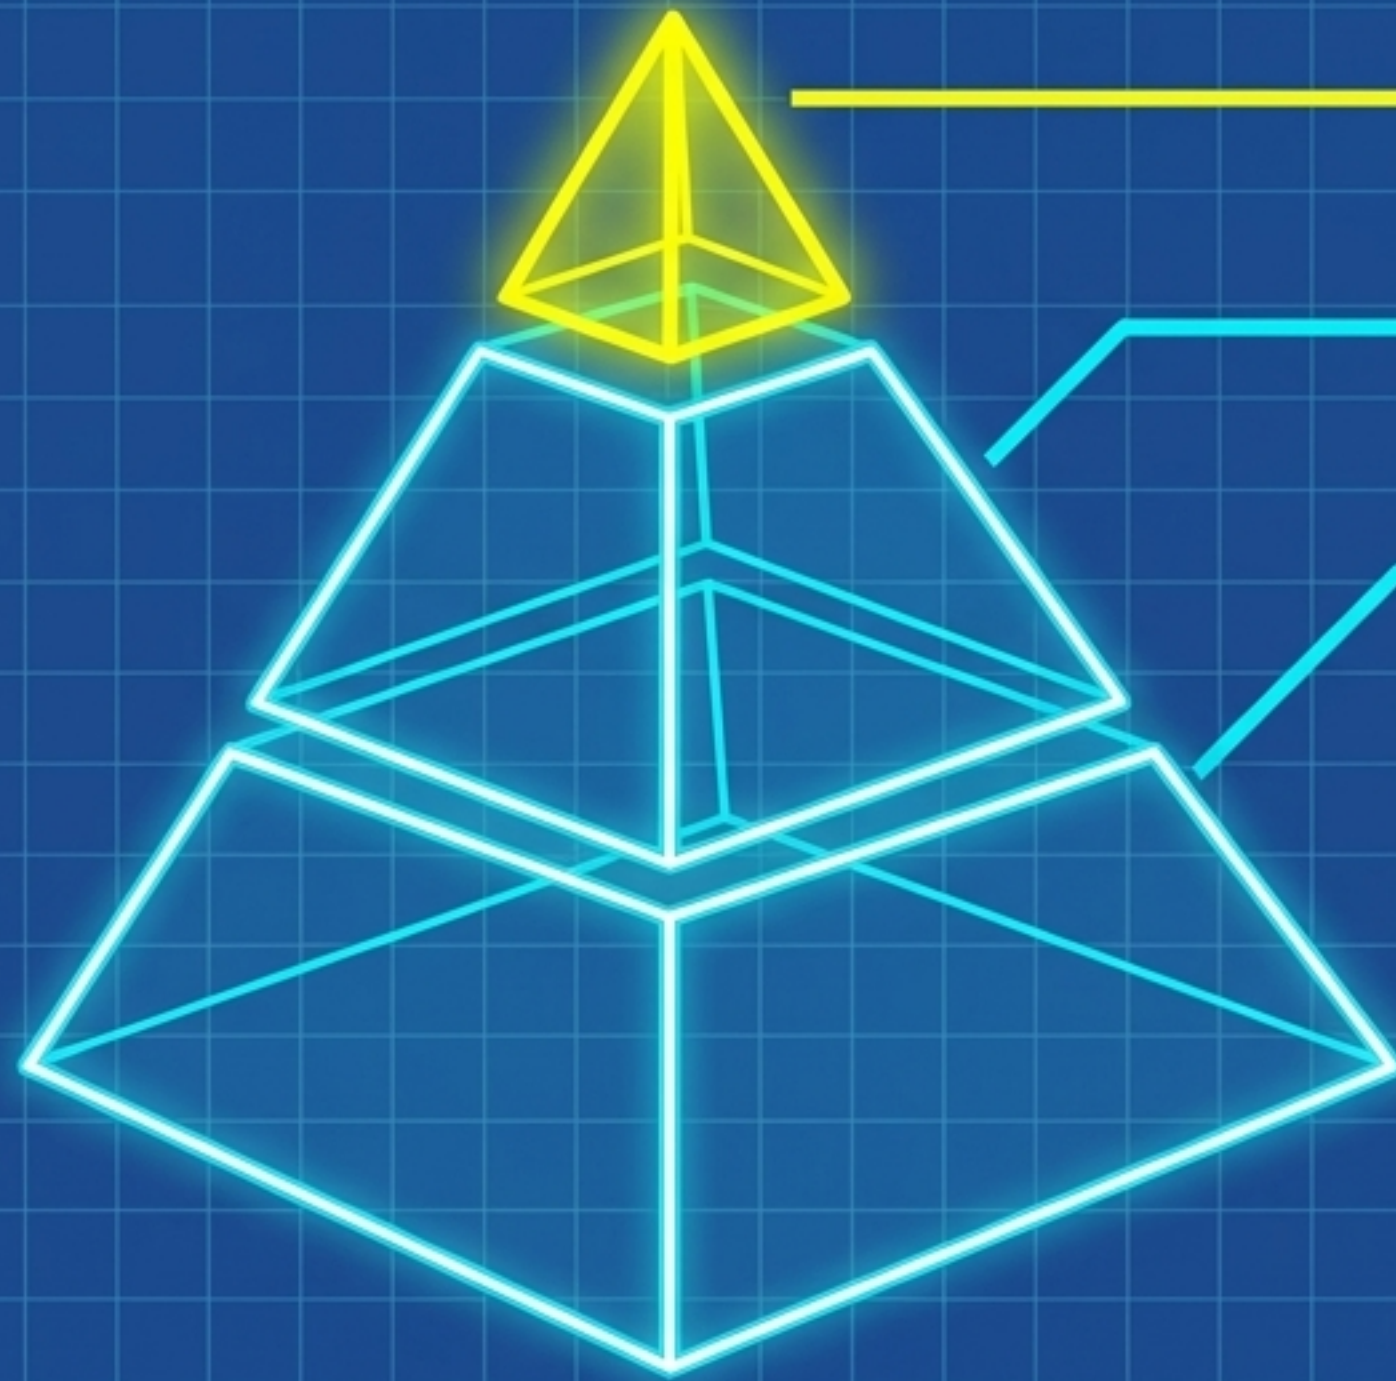

MEMORY SPARK: The President wears the crown (Nominal), the PM drives the car (Real).

Accountability Protocol:

The Council of Ministers belongs to the majority party majority party and is jointly responsible to the Parliament. They can be removed by passing a Vote of No Confidence.

Feature Zone 5: The Unified Judicial Pyramid

Apex: The Supreme Court (Protector of Rights, Guardian of the Constitution).

Middle: High Courts (can serve two or more states; judges transferable).

Base: Subordinate Courts.

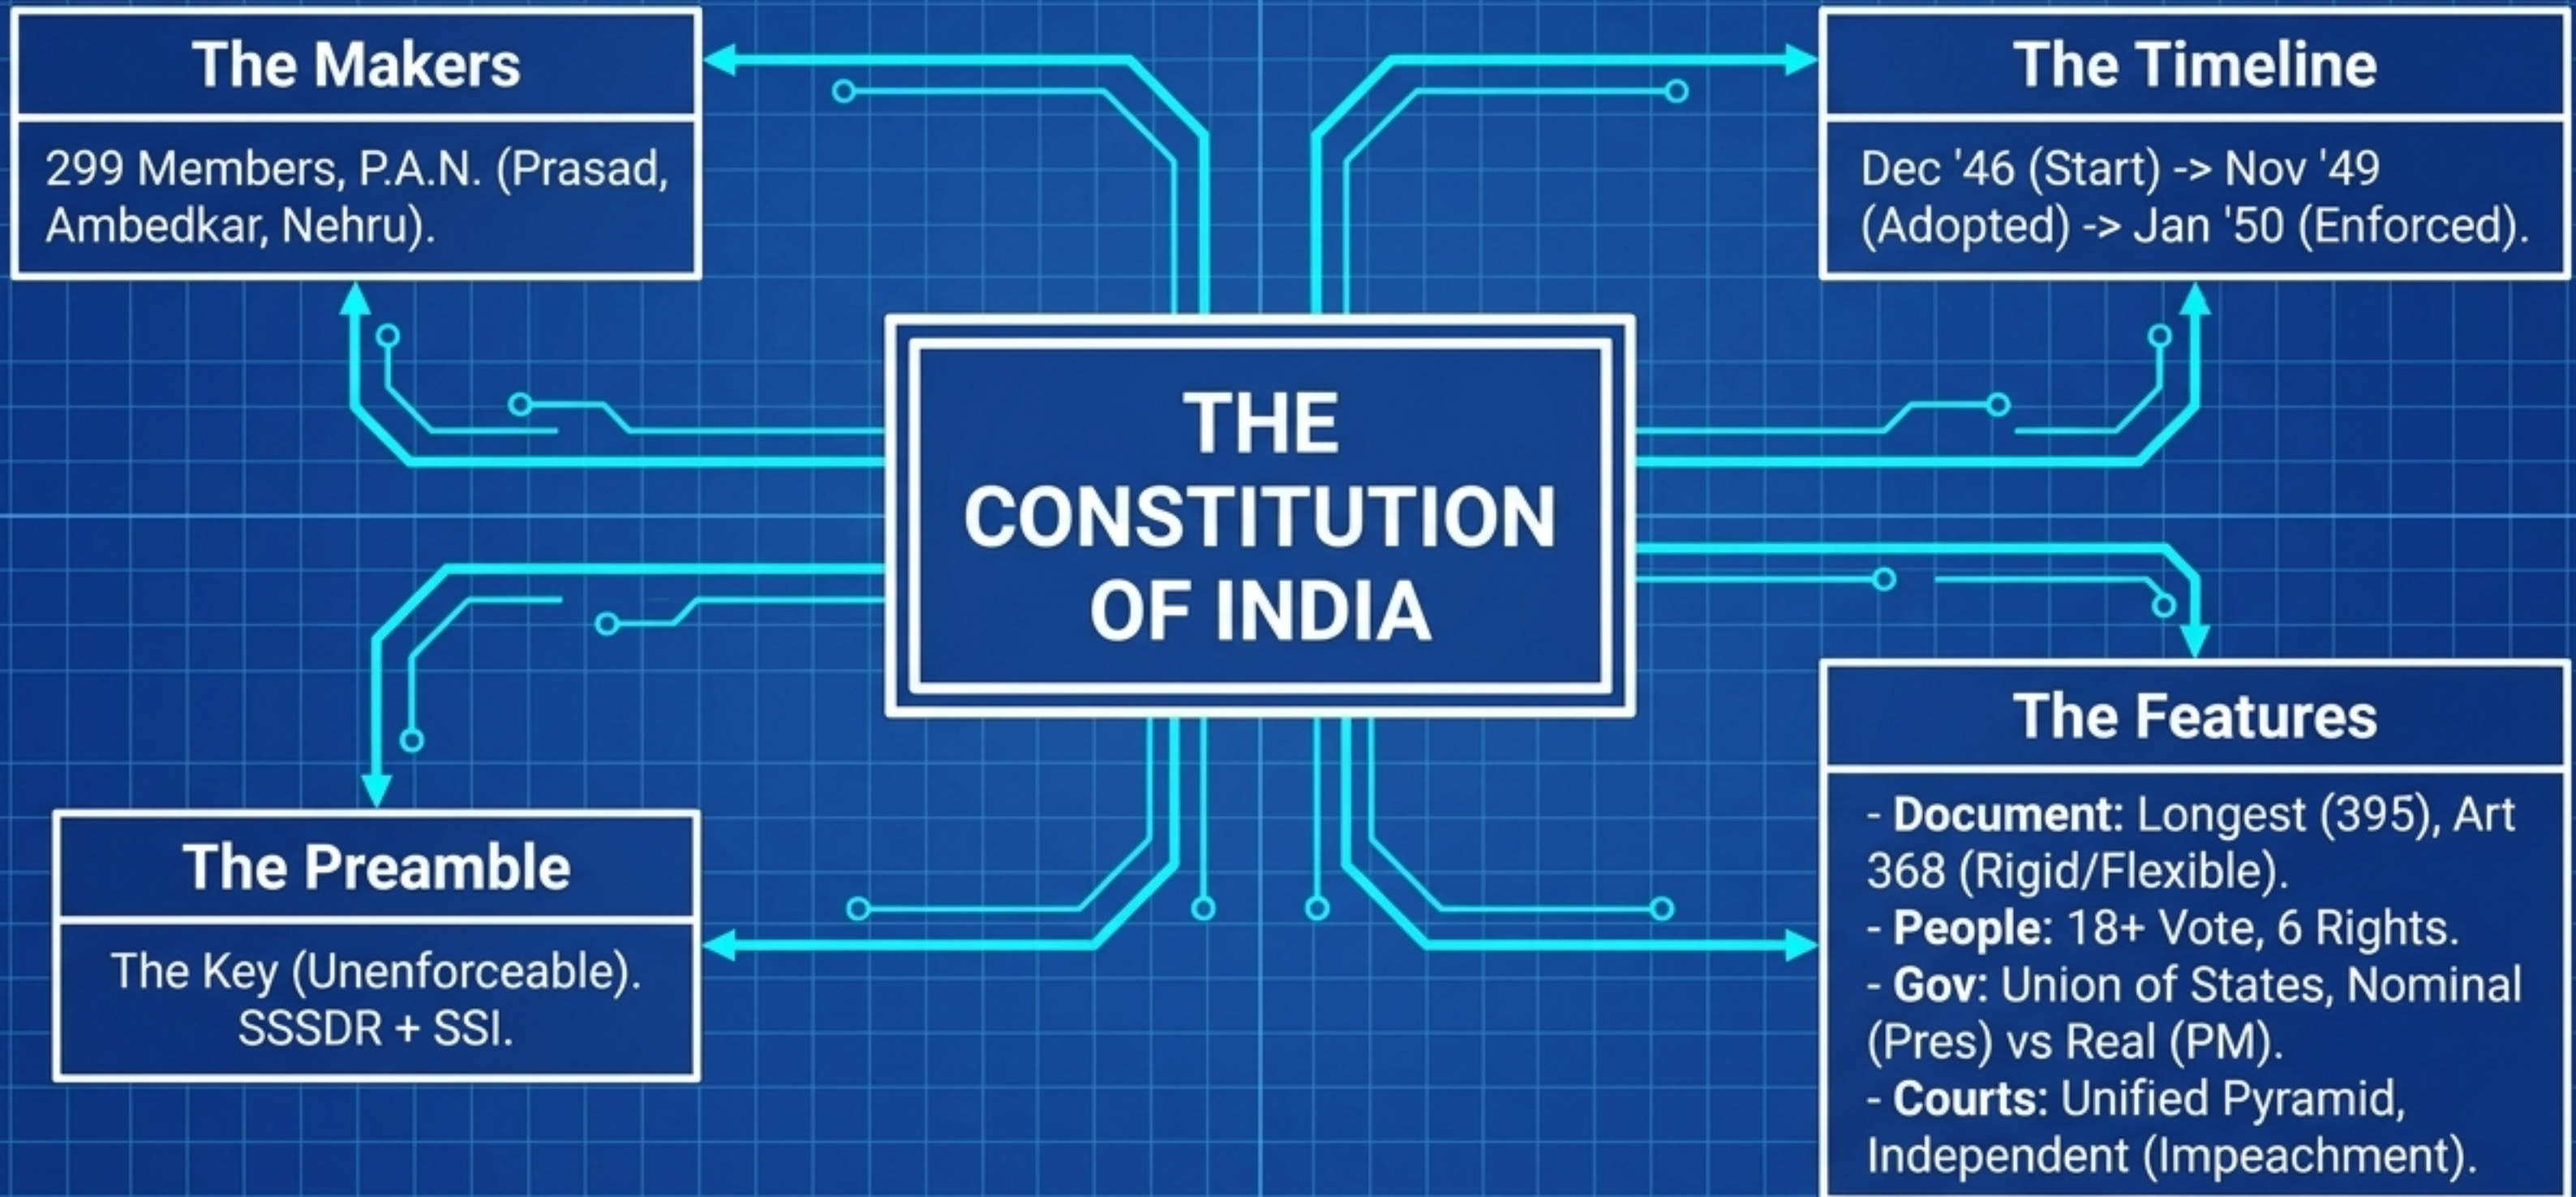

The Power of Independence

- Judges have fixed tenure and are removable only via impeachment.
- Possess the power of Judicial Review: can declare unconstitutional laws ultra vires (invalid).

MEMORY SPARK: The I.I.I. of the Courts → Independent, Impeachment (to remove), Invalidates bad laws (Judicial Review).
